

Nature's Gift for a Healthy Heart

With ProvexCV,® we've taken nature's humble grape and turned it into a supercharged heart protector! Melaleuca scientists super-concentrated the flavonoid power of nearly 10,000 grapes into every bottle of ProvexCV. But that's not all, ProvexCV also contains four other natural heart-health powerhouses to help support overall cardiovascular health, maintain healthy blood pressure levels, and reduce LDL oxidation by 70% compared to vitamin E.*

ProvexCV. Patented, natural heart health.

Can Antioxidants from Grapes Keep Me Feeling Young at Heart?

The answer is a resounding “yes!”

ProvexCV® is a patent-pending formula that combines the natural antioxidant power of super-concentrated grape seeds and skin with an exclusive blend of resveratrol, quercetin, green tea extract, and bromelain.

- Grape seed/skin extract—Super-concentrated natural extract associated with maintaining healthy platelet function. Also shown to help maintain healthy blood pressure.*
- Resveratrol—A polyphenolic compound found in grapes and some berries that has been shown in lab tests to neutralize free radicals and inhibit LDL oxidation. It is also associated with maintaining healthy platelet and endothelial function.*
- Quercetin—A flavonoid present in onions and apples, quercetin is a powerful antioxidant that has been shown to maintain healthy platelet function. Quercetin supplementation is also associated with maintaining healthy blood pressure levels.*
- Green tea extract—An extract containing the catechin EGCG, which is associated with healthy vascular endothelial function.
- Bromelain—Extracted from the stem of pineapple, bromelain helps maintain healthy platelet function.*
